

Lord and Lady

The story of Beaulieu dates back to 1204 when King John gave the land to the monks. Today, guests can enjoy a vast array of activities that once were the “Sport of Kings”.

Beaulieu boasts 7000 acres of woods and parkland which is perfectly suited to a whole host of exciting and challenging country sports. With such seclusion on the doorstep, this is an ideal environment for the most high-level meetings, with a range of activity options to match: an opportunity for you and your guests to live like nobility for the day!

What better way to sharpen the senses than a stroll with an expert falconer against the backdrop of a thirteenth century Cistercian Abbey. An ideal post-conference activity as guests interact with a mews of birds whilst the falconer entertains with his cadge and delivers a range of diverse teambuilding tasks.

For an evening function, we can bring your medieval feast to life: a Jester Or Fool, Alchemist or Wizard to demonstrate Apocatherly - a medieval medicine man with a range of macabre potions!

“Sport & Contest” has been justified since antiquity for providing soldiers with the physical training they would require in battle. Why not amaze your colleagues by introducing them to an English Longbowman or a Crossbowman, dressed in authentic period costume, ready to teach the whole history of the Bowyer, Fletcher and Archer.

Enjoy the fun as they try to string a 6’ yew bow and grapple with the traditional wooden arrows and whip-feather fletchings. In tune with the medieval era, a range of 3D targets such as wild boar are available! To enhance the experience, we offer table top jousting, hosted by traditional Knights of the Realm: a demonstration of armour, with “Skill at Arms” incorporating axe throwing, mace, warhammers and a comprehensive introduction to swordcraft. For the die-hard enthusiasts we offer a fourteen foot tall siege engine complete with a realistic castle to attack!

Together with these we also offer a brace of medieval teambuilding games from retrieving the sword in the swamp, medicine ball joust (human swing ball), to the ancient sport of poppinjay.
